We reserve the right to impose any such restrictions in the future as we deem reasonable, but we will give you at least 21 days advance written notice before doing so. You may make unlimited transfers to any of your accounts or to any Credit Union loan account and may make withdrawals in person, by mail, or at an ATM. However, we may refuse or reverse a transfer that exceeds these limitations and may assess fees against, lock or close your account.

You are required to get this letter back to us within 14 calendar days after the date of your oral request for reversal. We reserve the right to impose a reasonable charge for handling such reversal requests, and to increase such charges thereafter.

17. Confidentiality. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:

If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. We will tell you the results within three business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

*If you give notice of an error within 30 days after you make the first deposit to your account, notice of an error involving a point of sale transaction, or notice of an error involving a transaction initiated outside the U.S., its possessions and territories, we will have 90 days instead of 45 days to investigate.

19. Changing Terms of Your Account - Rules Regarding Fees, and Limits. The Credit Union may change the terms of this Agreement from time to time by sending Notice of any significant negative change to you no less than 45 days before we change certain fees (such as annual fees and cash advance fees) that apply to your account; or make other significant changes to the terms of your card.
20. Restrictions On Over-The-Account Balance Transactions. You must tell the credit union that you want it to allow transactions that will create an overdraft in your account. Otherwise, if a transaction would take you over the balance in your account, it may be turned down. We do not charge an overdraft fee if we pay a transaction that exceeds your credit limit unless you opt-in to allow the overdraft and charged a fee for each overdraft transaction. If you OPT-IN for this overdraft election, you will be charged a fee according to our fee schedule for each transaction that creates any such overdraft.
21. Terminating Your Account. Either you or the Credit Union may terminate this agreement at any time, but termination by you or the Credit Union will not affect your obligation to pay the Account balance plus any finance and other charges you owe under this Agreement. You are also responsible for all transactions made to your Account after termination, unless the transactions were unauthorized. The Card or Cards you receive remain the property of the Credit Union and you must recover and surrender to the Credit Union all Cards upon request or upon termination of this Agreement whether by you or the Credit Union. Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by card, code or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.
- b. Contact in event of unauthorized transfer. If you believe your Automated Teller Machine Cards (ATM Card), MasterCard Check Card and/or PIN(s) have been lost or stolen, or our Home Banking Account Access System PIN to your account has been compromised, call: (860) 446-4121 during normal business hours, or write to: Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union, PO Box 851, Groton CT 06340 IMMEDIATELY !!! You should also call the number or write to the address listed above if you believe a transfer has been made using the information from your check without your permission.

Your responsibility for such transfers remains until you have notified us in writing that the person is no longer authorized to initiate transfers.
26. Our Liability for Failure to Make "Electronic Fund Transfers". If we do not complete an "electronic fund transfer" to or from your accounts on time or in the correct amount according to our agreements with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance:
- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer or, pursuant to our Funds Availability Disclosure, there are "uncollected" funds that are not available.
 - If there is not enough money in your account, in excess of amounts you have pledged to us as collateral for a loan to make the transfer.
 - If the ATM, Internet or any other electronic access device was not working properly and you knew about the problem when you started the transaction.
 - If the error was caused by a system of any participating ATM network.
 - If funds in your account are subject to garnishment or other legal process.
 - If we have, because of your default on a loan, exercised our rights against the funds in a pledged account.
 - If the transfer would take the balance on your overdraft loan (if applicable) over the credit limit.
 - If the automated teller machine where you made the transfer did not have sufficient cash.
 - If the electronic transfer is not completed as a result of your willful or negligent use of your card, access code, or any EFT facility for making such transfers.
 - If circumstances beyond our control prevent the transfer (such as fire, flood, or power failure), despite reasonable precautions we have taken.
- We will also be excused from such liability if you fail to observe the terms of this agreement, or our account agreements with you, which relate to such "electronic fund transfers". If you have bill payment services, you must contact the intended recipient of the transaction for inquiries other than confirmation of the amount transferred from your account to the merchant, the date of the transfer and the recipient's identity/name.
27. Business Days. Our "business days" are as follows:

However, in the specific cases mentioned earlier, we will give you at least 21 days advance written notice. We also reserve the right to terminate this disclosure (agreement) by sending a notice of such termination by first class mail to your last known address on our records, which notice shall be effective when mailed. If we terminate this Agreement, we may notify any participating merchants making preauthorized debits or credits to any of your accounts that this Agreement has been terminated and that we will not accept any further preauthorized transaction instructions. We may also program our computer not to accept your card or access code for any EFT service. You may also terminate this agreement at any time by providing written notice to Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union, however, termination of this agreement will not relieve you of your continuing obligations incurred during the term of this agreement. If this Agreement is terminated, you must return all items issued by the Credit Union, including but not limited to, ATM Cards, MasterCard Check Cards, PINs and Codes, which remain the property of the Credit Union.
30. The effective date of this disclosure (agreement) is February 15, 2018.

We will not be required to complete any such transaction, but if we do, you agree to pay us the amount of the improper withdrawal, or transfer, upon request, plus our fee(s) for any such transactions that create an overdrawn account or accounts.
33. Secrecy of PIN. If we have issued a PIN to you, you agree to keep your PIN secret, and you also agree that you will not write the PIN on your ATM/Debit Card or on any item you keep with your cards. security code from you. If any of our employees or agents do request your PIN, please notify us immediately with the name of the employee or agent who requested your PIN.

35. Limitations of ATM Transactions. There are no limitations on the number or dollar amount of deposits you may make at any ATM during its 24-hour operating cycle. However, to protect against possible losses, your card will not allow you to withdraw more than a combined maximum withdrawal of $500.00 per daily cycle from your share, share draft and electronic withdrawal of cash using a MasterCard Check Card during such a 24-hour cycle, even if two ATM Cards or two MasterCard Check Cards have been issued for a single account. (For example, when a husband and wife each have a card for their joint account.) If a separate limit is set with regard to Point of Sale entries, we will disclose that limit to you separately. We reserve the right to change these limitations, and we will give you written notice of any such change according to applicable law.
36. Responsibility for Overdraft. If you obtain cash from an ATM which creates a shortage in your account, or if you overdraw an account through use of the Internet Home-Bank access service, e-Check(s), or otherwise, the overdrawn amount is due and payable the moment you receive your money, or make the transfer. You agree to pay the full amount of it to us, together with an overdrawn account charge pursuant to the fees applicable for your share draft account per occurrence. If you have an overdraft line of credit, an advance on your line of credit may be made to cover the overdraft, and you will pay that advance in accordance with the conditions of your line of credit plan, depending upon which form of overdraft protection you have selected. If there are not sufficient funds to make a transfer according your overdraft line of credit, or if you have no overdraft protection, then such overdraft will be paid to us as provided in the first sentence of this section.
37. Foreign Transaction Currency Conversion. If you effect a transaction with your MasterCard Check card in a currency other than US Dollars, MASTERCARD® will convert the funds into US Dollars and charge your account in US Dollars. MASTERCARD® will use its currency conversion procedure, which is disclosed to institutions that issue MASTERCARD® cards. The conversion rate used by MASTERCARD® to determine the transaction amount in US Dollars for such foreign transactions is either a government mandated exchange rate in effect for the applicable central processing date or a rate selected from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate MASTERCARD® itself receives and, may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date. A foreign transaction is a transaction where the issuer's country (i.e., the card-issuing financial institution's country) is different than the merchant's country. Thus, for example, a transaction over the Internet could qualify as an international transaction. These fees will be charged to your MASTERCARD® account for each foreign transaction. A foreign transaction is any transaction that you complete or a merchant completes on your card outside of the United States, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands or U.S. Military bases. An International Service Assessment fee on all international transactions of up to 1% will be charged by the credit union, regardless of whether there is a currency conversion. If there is a currency conversion, there is a 1% international transaction fee on all international transaction that we pass onto you as the user. An international transaction is a transaction where the county of the merchant is outside of the USA. If there is no currency conversion but the transaction was completed in a foreign country (a "single-currency transaction") the International Service Assessment (ISA) is charged, including cash advances, purchases and credits to your account. If there is a "multi-currency" conversion, the ISA will continue to be 1% of the transaction. An international transaction is a transaction where the issuer's country (i.e., the card-issuing financial institution's country) is different than the merchant's country. Thus, for example, a transaction over the Internet could qualify as an international transaction. These fees will be charged to your account for each foreign transaction.
38. International Ach Transactions (IAT). We reserve the right under U.S. law to only post International ACH Transactions after all necessary verifications have been completed. We reserve the right to reverse any transaction that is deemed uncollectible. International ACH Transactions may be governed by the law of a foreign nation. The posting of cross-border ACH transactions may be delayed by the Credit Union while it conducts government required reviews including OFAC verification. An ACH transaction will not be completed if it violates U.S. law. Certain International ACH transactions do not have the liability protections otherwise available under U.S. regulations.
39. Unlawful Internet Gambling Notice. Restricted transactions as defined in Federal Reserve Regulation GG are prohibited from being processed through this account or relationship. Restricted transactions generally include, but are not limited to, those in which credit, electronic fund transfers, checks, or drafts are knowingly accepted by gambling businesses in connection with the participation by others in unlawful Internet gambling.
40. Advisory Against Illegal Use. You agree not to use your card(s) for illegal gambling or any other illegal purpose. Display of a payment card logo by, for example, an online merchant does not necessarily mean that transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which the cardholder may be located.
41. Governing Law. This Agreement and Disclosure is governed by the Bylaws of Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, state laws and regulations and local clearinghouse rules, as may be amended from time to time. Any disputes regarding this agreement shall be governed by the laws of the United States and the State of Connecticut.
42. Enforcement. You agree that you will be liable to us for any loss, cost, or other expenses we incur as a result of your failure to comply with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and as we may amend from time to time. You authorize us, without prior notice, to deduct any loss, cost or other expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees that are incurred by us for your failure to comply with the terms of this agreement. You also agree that we may deduct any loss, cost or other expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees that are incurred by us for any action we may take to enforce this Agreement from your accounts with us.

Automated Clearing House (ACH) TRANSFERS (Uniform Commercial Code Article 4A)

Definitions:

The Receiving Depository Financial Institution (RDFI) is a financial institution with which the Receiver has an account relationship. Credit or debit entries sent to a Receiver's account will be received by the RDFI from the ACH Operator and then posted to the Receiver's account.

The Originator is the company/business that has been authorized by the Receiver to either credit or debit an account. When a company initiates a credit transaction to their employee's account for payroll or to a business customer's account for payment of goods and services, it is considered the Originator. Originators may also initiate debit transactions to a consumer or business account for payment of goods or services.

The Receiver can be either an individual or a company that has authorized the Originator (company) to credit or debit their account. The employee is the Receiver if his/her employer is initiating a Direct Deposit payroll credit. A business partner is the Receiver if the Originator is sending a credit to pay for goods or services. The Originator can also be a Receiver, in situations where another party is initiating credits or debits to their account.

"We" and "Us" refer to Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union. "You" refers to you as a credit union account owner at Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union.

The following rules shall apply to all ACH transfers services provided by Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union.

Choice of Law

Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union as an RDFI may accept, on your behalf, payments to your account which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses ("ACH") and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act and your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Connecticut as provided by the Operating Rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account, including Article 4A of the Connecticut Uniform Commercial Code.

Notice of Receipt of ACH Items

Under the Operating Rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account, Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union is not required to give next day notice to you of receipt of an ACH item, and we will not do so. However, we will continue to notify you of the receipt of payments in the periodic statements we provide to you.

Provisional Payment

Credit given by us to you with respect to an Automated Clearing House credit is provisional until we receive final settlement for such entry through a Federal Reserve Bank. If we do not receive such final settlement, you are hereby notified and agree that we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with such entry, and the party making payment to you via such entry (i.e., the Originator of the entry) shall not be deemed to have paid you the amount of such entry.

Payment Order

If you give us a payment order that identifies a beneficiary (the person to whom you are sending funds) by name and account or some other identifying number (such as a Social Security, Taxpayer I.D. or driver's license number), we may pay the beneficiary on the basis of the number provided to us by you and consider that number to be proper identification. This will be true even if the number you provided to us identifies a person different from the named beneficiary, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation.

If you give us a payment order that identifies the beneficiary's financial institution in the funds transfer by name and Routing and Transit ("R/T") or other identifying number, we, as well as the receiving financial institution, may rely on the number provided to us by you as the proper identification. This will be true even if the number provided identifies a financial institution that is different from the named financial institution, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation. Therefore, it is in your best interest to contact the receiving institution to acquire the appropriate transfer instructions so that your money will arrive safely. You, the member, are ultimately responsible for providing accurate information regarding funds transfers and are consequently liable for any losses or expenses should an error occur.

In addition, if we are ever obligated to pay interest on the amount of the transfer, you will be paid interest on a daily basis equal to the current dividend rate that is otherwise applicable to the account from which the funds transfer should have occurred. In the event we are ever liable to you for damages due to a transfer, your damages will be limited to actual damages only. We will not be responsible for incidental or consequential damages, court costs or attorney's fees, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation.

Same Day ACH

Effective September 15, 2017, all Receiving Depository Financial Institutions (RDFIs) are required to receive same-day ACH payments, thereby giving Originating Depository Financial Institutions (ODFIs) and their Originators the certainty of being able to send same-day ACH payments to accounts at all RDFIs.

Same-Day Execution

You, as a sender of a payment order, shall not issue a payment order that instructs us to execute the payment order on a funds-transfer business day that is later than the funds-transfer business day on which the order is received by us, unless we agree with you in writing to follow such instructions.

Stop Payment

Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union (RDFI) honors stop payment orders provided by Receivers, either verbally or in writing, submitted to the RDFI at least three Banking Days before the scheduled date of any debit entry to a Consumer Account other than a Single entry. Groton Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union (RDFI) honors stop payment orders provided by Receivers to the RDFI at such time and in such manner as to allow the RDFI a reasonable opportunity to act upon the order prior to acting on any debit entry to be initiated to a non-Consumer Account, or on a Single entry debit to be initiated to a Consumer Account.
